

Center for the
Study of Liberal Democracy
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVES ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM: A SCHOLARLY COLLOQUIUM

Thursday, February 10

Feast of St. Scholastica

- 2:00-2:30 pm Gathering, Opening Prayer, & Introductions
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706
- 2:30-4:00 pm Opening Seminar for Students and Scholars: Understanding Punishment in the Catholic Tradition—Most Rev. Donald J. Hying, Barbara Sella, John Stinneford, Marc DiGirolami
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706
- 4:30-5:45 Opening Reception
Fluno Center, 601 University Ave, Madison, WI 53715
- 6:00-7:15 pm Redeeming Punishment: Catholic Approaches to Criminal Justice Reform—Dean Strang, Cecelia Klingele, Rev. Javier del Castillo, Secretary Kevin Carr;
Moderator: Hon. Thomas More Donnelly
Fluno Center, 601 University Ave, Madison, WI 53715, Auditorium

Friday, February 11

Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes

- 9:00-10:00 am John Stinneford & Marc DeGirolami, The Common Law, the Catholic Tradition, and the Criminal Law
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706
- 10:00-11:00 am Rev. Gregory O'Meara, S.J., Continually Coming to Oneself in a Dark Wood: Catholic Anthropology and Criminal Law
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706
- 11:00-12:00 pm Patrick Brennan, Punishment among Friends
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706
- 2:00-3:00 pm Maria Hawilo & Mark Osler, Clemency: Where Mercy Meets the Constitution
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706

Center for the
Study of Liberal Democracy
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

- 3:00-4:00 pm Michael O'Hear, Jubilee: Catholic Social Doctrine and Lengthy Prison Sentences
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706
- 4:00-4:15 pm Break
- 4:15-5:15 pm Stephen Pope (co-author Janine Geske), Criminal Justice, Restorative Justice, and Catholic Social Teaching
Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706

Saturday, February 12

Feast of Sts. Cyril and Methodius

- 9:00-10:00 am Herschella Conyers, The Quality of Mercy: Ending the Transfer of Juveniles to Criminal Court
St. Paul's University Student Center 723 State Street, Madison, WI 53703, Library
- 10:00-11:00 am Cecelia Klingele, Hearing the Cry of the Poor: How the Principle of Subsidiarity Can Amplify the Voices of Those with Lived Experience of Crime and its Consequences
St. Paul's University Student Center 723 State Street, Madison, WI 53703, Library

Special thanks to the Center for the Study of Liberal Democracy for hosting this colloquium of the Lumen Christi Catholic Criminal Justice Reform Network (CCJRN), and to the following people and institutions for making this colloquium possible:

Most. Rev. Donald Hying, Rev. Eric Nielsen, St. Paul's University Student Center, Professor Richard Avramenko, University of Wisconsin Law School, Badger Catholic

Other cosponsors of the Catholic Criminal Justice Reform Network include:

Georgetown University Law Center, Notre Dame Law School, Boston College Law School, Fordham University School of Law, Loyola University Chicago Law School, University of St. Thomas School of Law, The Hank Center for the Catholic Intellectual Heritage, The Institute on Religion, Law, and Lawyer's Work at Fordham University School of Law, Center on Race, Law, and Justice at Fordham University School of Law, Catholic Lawyers Guild of Chicago, Catholic Prison Ministry Coalition, Kolbe House Jail Ministry

The scholars participating in the book project include:

Rev. Gregory O'Meara, S.J., Dean Strang, Herschella Conyers, Stephen Garvey, Janine Geske, Joseph Bugni, Irene Oritseweyinmi Joe, Cecelia Klingele, Meghan Ryan, Brian Murray, Michael O'Hear, Stephen Pope, Michael Scott,

Center for the
Study of Liberal Democracy
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Tobias Winright, Marah McCleod, Mark Osler, Stephen Pope, Maria Hawilo, Rick Garnett, Andrew Skotnicki, Francis X. Shen, John Stinneford, Marc DiGirolami, Patrick Brennan, Renée Lerner