

Catholic Social & Political Thought Initiative

Fall 2025 Reading Group

Augustinian Political Thought

Discussion (and snacks) from 6:30-8:00 p.m.
UW Law School, Room 7200, 975 Bascom Mall

The new Pope Leo XIV is an American member of the international Augustinian religious order. Who was St. Augustine? How did he--and how do those still influenced by his thought--understand the role and power of the State? Join us for an exploration of St. Augustine of Hippo and his far-reaching impact on Western social and political thought. Printed copies of readings available free of charge.

Alternating Tuesdays:

9/16

9/30

10/14

10/28

11/11

11/25

The Center for the Study of Liberal Democracy